

HPCANYS
Grief and Bereavement Web Resources to Aid Children
January 2007

Children

Children and Grief

Information for patients and families facing life-threatening illnesses. The website discusses how children cope with grief, and how to talk to children about death.
www.aacap.org

National Cancer Institute

Discusses the issues that children face when they grieve.
www.cancer.gov

Children's Hospice International

Provides education, training, and technical assistance to those who care for children with life-threatening illnesses and their families.
www.chionline.org

Grieving Child

Materials, activities, for children under age 12, information for parents on helping their children.
www.grievingchild.org

American Academy of Child and Adolescent Psychiatry (AACAP)

Dedicated to child and adolescent psychiatry. Provides current information on issues affecting children, teens, and their families.
www.aacap.org

National Child Traumatic Stress Network

Dedicated to improving care and access to services for children who have been traumatized, their families, and communities.
www.nctsnet.org

Sesame Street Workshop

Includes a section on parenting advice and a section called You Can Ask! Devoted to helping children aged 3-8 cope.
www.sesameworkshop.org

New York University Child Study Center

Deals with the mental health of children.
www.aboutourkids.org

Dougy Center for Grieving Children

Provides support and training locally, nationally, and internationally to children and organizations to assist children and teens in grief.
www.dougy.org

Fernside

Grief information, resources, and support for grieving children and their families.
www.fernside.org